

IFS Recruiter Internship Program

Looking for an opportunity to gain valuable recruiting experience?

Do you have an outgoing personality?

Are you looking for an internship you can do on your campus?

Check out our exciting Israel Free Spirit (IFS) Recruiter Internship.

We're looking for your talents to help recruit for our amazing, free Birthright Israel trips.

Structure

- Flexible 5-10 hours per week from January until April
- Attend a training webinar
- Create daily/weekly reports
- Periodic professional workshops

Job Description

- Generate leads through peer networking
- Actively engage and recruit potential participants for upcoming trips
- Follow up with leads about the registration process
- Help applicants with questions about the application
- Innovate new recruitment strategies
- Coordinate with other recruiter interns on campus

Payment Structure

- Base salary + commission and incentives
- Letter of recommendation
- Great learning potential plus development workshops

About Us

Israel Free Spirit is an accredited non-profit Birthright Israel trip organizer. We run free 10-day trips to Israel for people of all Jewish backgrounds. Our participants enjoy an all-encompassing itinerary and first-hand exposure to the many facets of Israel. Whether you want to go with your friends, peers or simply to explore the different sides of Israel, we have a trip for you! Themed trips include Arts & Entertainment, Business, Spirituality and more.

Please email resumes to jeremy@israelfreespirit.com